The Glen Senior
Lifestyle Apartments
Tenant Select Plan

Each tenant applicant will be required to verify his/her earnings and/or their ability to pay rent. All tenant prospects will be required to provide two recent pay stubs, a letter of reference from employers, references from the last landlords for the building in which that tenant has resided and evidence of family income. Questionnaires will also inquire as to family size, number of bedrooms in the unit desired, etc. Upon receipt of a completed application, the managing agent will begin the screening process.

If the credit report proves to be satisfactory, employment data and references from prior landlords are verified.

There can not be more than two (2) occupants in any given unit.

Prospective tenants must not have been subject to a successful prior eviction in the past five years.

Prospective tenants must have a good credit history. The Glen will use a credit reporting service, which will perform a search of the housing court records and Equifax, TRW, or some similar credit service.

Prospective tenants must have a favorable recommendation from his/her immediately prior landlord. An unfavorable recommendation will be one in which the prior landlord describes one or more substantial violations, or repeated minor violations in which Tenant:

1. Disrupts the livability of the project;
2. Adversely affects the health and safety of any person or the right of any tenant to quiet enjoyment of his/her leased premises;
3. Interferes with the management of the project, provided that the manager of said project was engaging in management procedures that were lawful in all respects; or
4. Has an adverse financial effect on the project, provided that said adverse financial effect was not caused by a Tenant who lawfully withheld rent or lawfully exercised a remedy available by law.

Prospective tenants can not have a history of abuse of Landlord's property.

Prospective tenants can not have a history of occupancy by unauthorized persons in his/her rental unit.

Prospective Tenants shall not keep, harbor, house, or board any Pet, wild or domestic, in or about the leased premises or on the property, however tenants may have a single cat or dog that he/she is bringing to the project that cannot exceed 30 lbs. in weight. Pets will not include canaries, fish or animals that are utilized in assisting handicapped persons. As part of the pet policy, all Tenants wishing to have a pet must deposit with the Landlord a pet deposit in the amount of $200 in addition to the Tenant's security deposit.

Prospective tenants must not have been convicted of (i) a felony, or (ii) a misdemeanor within the last ten (10) years.

If a tenant prospect was to be accepted for occupancy, The Glen must be tenant's only place of residence.

The residency of the apartment is limited to:

- i) a person who is 55 years of age or older; or
- ii) couples with at least one member over the age of 55.

The application process shall also include:

1. a home visit, and
2. a personal interview. Questions asked at the personal interview will be the same questions asked on the Tenant Application. The Managing Agent may also review the terms of the prospective lease agreement.

Prospective tenants must agree to allow an agent of The Glen to visit and observe his/her current residence. The home visit is a voluntary visit wherein an agent of The Glen, at the invitation of the tenant, conducts a visit of such prospect's existing home. The purpose of the home visit is to examine the conditions in which the tenant presently resides. The overall condition of the building is not considered a factor for screening, however, the condition of the tenant's apartment is a very important factor. This is a good indication of the way that the tenant will maintain an apartment in The Glen. The home visits are conducted so as to not violate a tenant's Civil Rights or any other Fair Housing or Affirmative Marketing law governing The Glen.

All members of the household over the age of 18 are subject to annual sex offender and criminal background checks to determine continued eligibility for residency.

Income: As of March 28, 2016 family income can not exceed the following:
